6. Form of request: Section 51 (1)(e)

To facilitate the processing of your request, kindly:

- 6.1 Use the prescribed form (Form C – when a request is made to a private body or business), available on the website of the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) at www.sahrc.org.za
- 6.2 Address your request to the Head of the Company (Chief Information Officer).
- 6.3 Provide sufficient details to enable the Company to identify:
  - a) The record(s) requested;
  - b) The requester (and if an agent is lodging the request, proof of capacity);
  - c) The form of access required;
    - i. The postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic;
    - ii. If the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to written) the manner and particulars thereof;
  - d) The right which the requester is seeking to exercise or protect with an explanation of the reason the record is required to exercise or protect the right.

Any request for access to records should be submitted on the prescribed form C (a copy of which is attached) which should be sent to the CIO whose name and address details appear in paragraph 2 hereof.

7. Prescribed fees: Section 51 (1)(f)

The following applies to requests (other than personal requests):

- 7.1 A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees (R50.00) before a request will be processed;
- 7.2 If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);
- 7.3 A requestor may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;
- 7.4 Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.
- 7.5 The fee structure is available on the website of the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) at www.sahrc.org.za

Please note that the correct completion and submission of a Request for Access form does not automatically entitle or allow the applicant access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a category as specified in Part 3 Chapter 4 of the Act.

Please further note that if it is reasonably suspected that an applicant has obtained access to a record on the basis of the submission of materially incorrect, false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such applicant.

In the event that a request for access is successful an access fee will be payable for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of records and will be calculated based on the fee prescribed under the Act, an extract of the details of which is attached at the end of this manual.

7.1 Completion of Request for Access Form

All applicants should take note of the following guidelines when completing the attached Request for Access to Record of a Private Body (Form C):

- (i) The form must be completed by filling in all lines and spaces
- (ii) Proof of the identity, in the form of a copy of the applicant's identity document, is required to be submitted with the application
- (iii) If the applicant is a body corporate, the authority of the person submitting the application on behalf of such body corporate must be proven on the basis of a written authority to be attached
- (iv) Type or print in a clear eligible manner, if a question does not apply indicate so by inserting "N/A" in response to that question, and if there is nothing to disclose in response to a particular question write "NIL" in response thereto
- (v) If there is insufficient space in the form, add additional folios on which the additional information is provided, clearly indicating to which question this relates.

Request for information will be evaluated and the applicant will be notified within 30 days after receipt of the request in the prescribed format of the following:

7.2 Notification of extension period (if required)

Applicants must take note that in terms of the Act, the 30 days period mentioned above may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days under certain circumstances (details will be provided together with the notification of such extension);

7.3 The access fee and/or deposit

The applicant will be informed of the access fee or deposit (if any) which is payable for having access to the records and for the search, reproduction and/or preparation work involved, the account details and of the methods in which payment may be made. In addition, a deposit may be requested which is fully refundable in the event that the application is ultimately refused.

7.4 Decision on request

The applicant will be informed whether or not the application for access has been denied, or granted. In the event that the application is refused, the applicant will be given adequate reasons for the refusal and will be informed that the applicant may lodge an application with a Court against the refusal of the application, as well as the procedure (including the period) for lodging such application.

7.5 Grounds for refusal

The Group may legitimately refuse to grant access to a requested record that falls within a certain category. Grounds on which the Group may refuse include:

- Protecting personal information that the Group hold about a third person (who is a natural person), including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
- Protecting commercial information that the Group holds about a third party or the Group (for example trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the Group or the third party);
- If disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;

- If disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived;
- Disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Group;
- Disclosure of the record would put the Group at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- The record is a computer programme; and/or
- The record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party of the Group.

7.6 Records that cannot be found or do not exist

If the Group has searched for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try and locate the record.

8. Third party information

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Group is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event of the third party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, our designated CIO will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.
